Front end development: Callbacks

JavaScript – callback function

The following exercise contains the following subjects:

◆ callback functions

Instructions

Write a function that receives 2 arguments, a string and a callback function.

1. The function checks that the callback function is indeed a function.

2. Pass the string to the callback function which logs that string to the console.

Submit the file to Hive.